NAME ORIGIN: The Harold V. Goodman Memorial Stakes honors the late 1994 Texas Breeder of the Year and owner/breeder of Texas' former all-time leading female money earner Two Altazano (winner of the Grade I Coaching Club American Oaks, Grade II Monmouth Oaks, Grade II Fantasy, Grade III Fair Grounds Oaks, Marie P. DeBartolo Memorial Oaks and Sam Houston Oaks in 1994). Goodman, born in Beaumont and lifelong resident of Houston, was a graduate of the University of Texas, served in the Navy during World War II and founded the Goodman Manufacturing Company in 1977. He purchased his first Thoroughbreds with friend W.S. "Bill" Kilroy, but mainly campaigned horses on his own. An exception was made in 1992 when Goodman purchased one-eighth of A.P. Indy, the 1992 Breeders' Cup Classic champ and Horse of the Year. Goodman also owned the Brazos T Ranch (complete with a training center) near Brookshire where he stood premier Texas stallion Manzotti. Michael Stidham, one of Lone Star Park's top trainers, was Goodman's private trainer. Goodman succumbed to cancer on Jan. 13, 1995, one day before he was to accept the award as Texas' top breeder of 1994 and the award for Two Altazano as 1994 Champion Texas-bred 3-Year-old Filly. Two Altazano, who won nine of her 20 starts and $709,725, was the holder of Texas' all-time female money-earner title until Got Koko passed her in 2003 ($960,946). Son Greg Goodman and his wife Rebecca, who run horses as Mt. Brilliant Stable, have sponsored this race since 2002.
