NAME ORIGIN: The Got Koko Division honors the 2003 Texas-bred Horse of the Year that won seven of her 15 starts and $960,946 between 2002-04. Bred by Eileen Hartis of Sealy, Texas (note: she owns and manages 40-acre Runaway Farm between Sealy and Belleville), Got Koko was purchased by Aase Headley (the wife of trainer Bruce Headley) and Paul Leung for $30,000 at the 2000 Keeneland September yearling sale. After becoming only the third horse to sweep Santa Anita's prestigious La Cañada series in 2003 (the La Brea, El Encino and La Cañada for 4-year-old fillies), Got Koko pulled off one of the biggest upsets that year when she defeated 2002 Horse of the Year Azeri in the Grade II Lady's Secret Breeders' Cup Handicap, snapping Azeri's 11-race win-streak. Jockey Alex Solis was her pilot in all but one career start. Eileen Hartis, a horsewoman for 40 years, purchased Got Koko's dam, Baby North, in foal with Got Koko for $11,000 at the 1998 Keeneland November breeding stock sale.
