

We are proud to present the fourth running of The Global Gaming Triple linking the following three stake races at Lone Star Park and at Remington Park. By nominating to one you will automatically be nominated to all of them. Each race will still have their individual closing date also. Preference will be given to starters in previous races and previous starters will receive FREE start fees in the following races. There will be NO bonus monies available this year. Please contact the racing office at either track for complete details.
